

AUSD NET for TEACHERS

<http://teachers.ausd.net>

This is an Internet server created by AUSD students for students and teachers. This service is provided to us for free. It offers E-mail and web space, just as AOL does. The advantage for teachers is in the web space and privledges. Every teachers may post their own web pages from home. Previously only LI TE tech could do this from school. Your LI TE tech still can load and link your web page to the school site. Posting to AUSD Net is different and independent form your school site.
